Greetings to all.....

We returned from our Alaska Caravan this Thursday the twenty-third. We had a marvelous time, the weather was good and we experienced very few flies and mosquitoes. It was a wonderful trip, one we will remember forever.

Now we are getting ready for the installation rally.

We only have 14 units signed up so far. I thought the opportunity to have a free meal of prime rib and chicken would get more of us to attend. Please take time to consider coming to the rally and supporting Les Parks and your unit. We also have four special guests coming, from our region and from International.

Also, coming up is the Trap Pond Rally, so don't forget to reserve your campsite. This will be the last rally of the season. The next event is the Christmas luncheon, get your reservation in early.

Well, this year went by very fast, it seems that it wasn't that long ago that I was installed as the unit president. I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone for all of their help in making this past year fun and exciting.

Thanks again for a great year and looking forward to seeing you down the road.

Chuck and Maggie.

Trap Pond Extra.....

Delmarva members who have attended the Trap Pond Rally may remember that the collection money from the Worship service was given to Bear Hugs for Babies. This year if you want to do a little extra, Bear Hugs is in need of diapers, bottles, care items (thermometers, wipes, etc.), and receiving blankets. All items suitable for newborns 1 to 5 days old. If you would like to purchase some of these items and bring them to the rally. Maxine and Bear Hugs for Babies would greatly appreciate it.....

Bert died at home in Wilmington Friday September 24. He was a native of Danville, Va and had recently moved back there to his boyhood home. He served in the Navy, on a destroyer, from 1946 until 1949. After his navel service he worked for Dupont in Seaford and Wilmington. He also worked as a pilot, patrolling power lines for an electric company.

Airstreamers will remember him for: his stories, which usually started with, "I don't know if this is true", his puppet, Otis, playing the bagpipes at rallies and his portrayal of the flamingo expert at the Flamingo Fling.

Bert brought good times and camaraderie to our Delmarva gatherings. He will be greatly missed.

Unit Christmas Luncheon

Saturday December 4th

Hosted by: Phil & Fay
aka: Wilson & The Catfish

Ho, Ho, Ho"! Christmas is right around the corner... which means you will soon have our annual Christmas Luncheon to attend. Due to the Wayside Inn being closed, we had to look for another place in which to hold the luncheon. We have chosen "Trevi Ristorante" which is also in Smyrna, just a block or so North of Wayside. "Trevi" is Italian and has a very extensive menu. The menu offers Appetizers, Salads, Soup of the Day, Pasta Specialties, Seafood Platters, Lobster, Steaks, Chicken and Veal. In the Pizza line, there are 23 different Speciality Pizzas as well as "Create Your Own Pizza" which gives you 15 toppings to pick from. All Pizzas are baked in a Wood Fire Brick Oven. Quite a menu, huh?

The date set for the luncheon is Saturday, December 4, 2010. We would like every one, if at all possible, to arrive at "Trevi" by 12:00 noon for our usual "Meet & Greet" time. We will sit down and place our food orders at 1:00 p.m.

Please call Fay & Phil at 302-834-4045, no later than November 27, 2010. After November 27, we will not be able to include you in the count. When you call, if no one answers, leave us your name and phone number, and we will call you back.

You DO NOT have to send us any money at any time. Each of us will order off the menu and will pay for our meals before leaving the restaurant.

ADDRESS and DIRECTIONS -
